1-MARCH-2019 BY SHRC_ADMIN

The Syrian Human Rights Committee (SHRC) documented 11 massacres during the month of February. The regime forces were responsible for six of them, while those responsible for the remaining massacres were not known.

Idlib province came in the forefront with the largest number of (7) massacres, while (3) massacres took place in the northern province of Hama, which is now under the control of the opposition in Idlib, and one massacre occurred in Deir ez-Zor.

Since the second week of February, the regime forces have targeted areas beyond its control and which is under the control of the opposition in Idlib and northern countryside of Hama province with artillery and rocket fire that has almost never ceased since then, although the area is subject to an agreement of de-escalation.
