NOTAT

SYRIEN. Asylsager – genindkaldelse til militærtjeneste.

På given foranledning har udenrigsministeriet via Danmarks ambassade i Beirut været i kontakt med tre uafhængige kilder, herunder den af ambassaden sædvanligt anvendte lokale juridiske kilde for Syrien samt en højtstående FN repræsentant. Følgende oplysninger er fremkommet vedr. genindkaldelse til militærtjeneste i Syrien:

All three sources confirm that the law about the military service has not been changed. The law stipulates that all Syrian male citizens and those abiding by Syrian ruling like Palestinian registered refugees in Syria have to do the military service as soon as they complete eighteen years of age. The assignment ends after the completion of the service or by being exempted or by being over 42 years of age.

Source 1 and 2 - one being the UN-source - however stated that in practical life call-ups are seen up to and including 45 years of age. Call-ups are tied to specific military needs of specific military divisions/units.

Source 3 stated that in spite of the crisis in Syria individuals over the age of 42 are not called up for the military service.
