Notat om arrestationer ifm præsidentvalget i oktober 2004 i Aserbajdsjan

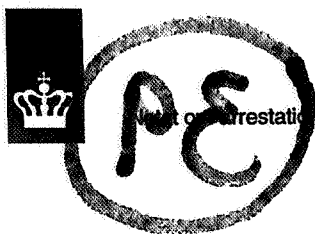

I forbindelse med præsidentvalget den 15. oktober 2003 blev der afholdt masse-demonstrationer de efterfølgende dage i Baku og andre byer i Aserbajdsjan i protest mod foregået valgsvindel. Demonstrationerne udviklede sig til voldelige sammenstød mellem demonstranter og politi, og på et tidspunkt blev militæret sat ind. En person blev dræbt, nemlig valgforordnede Hamidaga Zakhidov, og et ukendt antal demonstranter såvel som politi såredes.

Omkring 400 personer blev arresteret, herunder 196 alene den 16. oktober. Blandt de arresterede var medlemmer af en række oppositionspartier. Jfr. hertil listen i bilag over arresterede medlemmer af DPA (Aserbajdsjan Demokratiske Parti) på russisk og den danske oversættelse f.s.v.a. arresterede medlemmer i Baku by, meddelelsen på russisk om arrestationer af medlemmer af Musavat partiet, og listen på engelsk over udsatte journalister.

Den 22. oktober blev det meddelt, at der ville blive rejst straffesager mod 128 personer i henhold til; Par. 221,1 hooliganisme med en strafferamme fra 160 til 200 timers samfundstjeneste, forbedringsarbejde indtil ét år eller fængsel indtil ét år; Par. 233, organisering eller aktiv deltagelse i optøjer med en strafferamme på bøder mellem 500 til 1.000 måneders mindsteløn, forbedringsarbejde indtil to år, begrænset frihedsberøvelse indtil to år, eller fængsel indtil tre år; Og par. 315,2, modstand mod ordensmagten under anvendelse af vold til fare for liv og helbred med en strafferamme på mellem tre og syv års fængsel.

Den følgende uge blev de arresterede imidlertid successivt sat på fri fod på nær 75 personer, som fortsat holdes i arrest i isolations- og højssikkerhedsfængslet nr. 1 Bailov. Blandt de frigivne var samtlige arresterede journalister. Blandt de fortsat fængslede personer er DPA's generalsekretær Sardar Džalaloglu (Calaloglu), viceformændene for Musavat, Sulhaddin Akba, Ibrahim Ibrahimli og Arif Hacili, formanden for partiet Håbet, Iqbal Agazada, og lederen af selskabet for Karabakh veteraner Etimad Asadov.

Mod de 75 personer, der fortsat er fængslet, er der rejst straffesager efter par. 315,2 og 220,1 i den aserbajdsjanske straffelov. Par. 220,1 omhandler organisering af masseoptøjer, pogromer, ildspåsættelse, ødelæggelse af ejendom osv. med en strafferamme fra 4 til 12 års fængsel.

Der vil ligeledes blive rejst sigtelse efter disse par. mod formanden for partiet Musavat, Isa Qambar, så snart hans immunitet i forbindelse med hans opstillen som præsidentkandidat kan ophæves.

Efterfølgende er der blevet foretaget flere arrestationer og andre er frigivet. Således blev den 24. oktober 20 personer fra oppositionen, herunder viceformanden for partiet Musavat, Arif Hacili, arresteret. Alle var valgforordnede under præsidentvalget, men havde nægtet at underskrive valgprotokollerne. Den 27. oktober blev chefredaktøren Raufa Arifoglu for oppositionsavisen Jeni Musavat arresteret efter en kendelse fra Nasimi distriktsdomstol og foreløbig fængslet for tre måneder samt tiltalt for overtrædelse af par. 315,2 og 220,1. Modsat blev den 8. november 20 personer frigivet, og den 19. november blev Elcin Abdullayev, et medlem af Foreningen for demokratiske Reformere, Yusif Sirinov samt medlem af Musavat Ilqar Muradov løsladt.

Den 3. december meddelte generalprokuratoren Zakir Qaralov at der i alt nu var fængslet 108 personer i forbindelse med optøjerne efter præsidentvalget.

Forinden den 29. oktober havde generalprokuratoren meddelt, at de afsluttede undersøgelser havde vist, at de skyldige i optøjerne frem for alt var lederne af Musavat partiet, partiet Håbet og DPA, medlemmer af det Forenede Parti, medlemmer af partiet de Grå Ulve og personer med radikale religiøse standpunkter.

Den 10. november faldt den første dom, idet blev sekretæren for Musavat's partiafdeling i Saki distriktet, Ismail Sadixli, blev dømt efter par. 233, 186,2 (ødelæggelse af ejendom) og 315,2 til fem års fængsel.

Arrestationerne blev foretaget af bl.a. medarbejdere af Styrelsen for kampen mod organiseret Kriminalitet, UBOP (engelsk forkortelse OCU), og medlemmer af MNB, Ministeriet for National Sikkerhed, der afløste KGB i 1992 og som hører under Indenrigsministeriet, MVD. Mange af de arresterede blev bragt til UBOP's særlige isolations- og undersøgelsesfængsel.

Imod disse tjenester og politiet er der blevet fremført beskyldninger og beviser for, at der er blevet anvendt tortur mod de arresterede.
