Victims of September 2014

1-October-2014

The data compiled by SHRC shows that over 99% of September's victims were killed by the Syrian regime. Less than 2% of the victims were killed by the attacks of the International alliance, and less than 1% were killed by ISIS.

During the month of September 2014, the Syrian Human Rights Committee (SHRC) documented the killing of 2103 Syrians that died due to shelling, bombing from the Syrian regime warplanes, or clashes between the opposition and regime forces, in addition to the victims of gas attacks, the victims of the siege imposed on the Eastern Ghouta, public executions carried out by Kurdish groups, and the international alliance attacks which killed 33 civilians, as well as killings by ISIS, of which 19 were victims.

The number of children killed this month, and documented by SHRC were 281. SHRC also documented the killing of 188 women and 117 people killed under torture in regime security centres and prisons.

On average, 70 civilians were killed each day in Syria during September 2014.
