SHRC documents 19 massacres in July 2019

2-AUGUST-2019 BY SHRC_ADMIN

The Syrian Human Rights Committee documented 19 massacres in Syria during July 2019. Idlib province is in the forefront, for the sixth month in a row, followed by Aleppo and Hama with two massacres each, in addition to one massacre in Deir ez-Zor.

The rate of massacres this month is the highest in Syria since last November.

The regime was responsible for (12) massacre committed by warplanes, helicopters and artillery shells. Russian warplanes were responsible for 4 massacres and armed factions for 2 massacres. It was not known who was responsible for one massacre carried out by a car bomb targeted the area of Afrin in Aleppo countryside.
