

Flygtningenævnets baggrundsmateriale

Bilagsnr.:	1050
Land:	Syrien
Kilde:	The Syrian Human Rights Committee
Titel:	Air strikes kill 21 people in Idlib
Udgivet:	11. juni 2019
Optaget på baggrundsmaterialet:	17. juni 2019

Air strikes kill 21 people in Idlib

11-JUNE-2019 BY SHRC_ADMIN

On Monday evening, warplanes targeted three residential houses in Jabala village in the southern suburb of Idlib, killing 12 people, including five children and three women. A number of houses were completely destroyed and several others were damaged.

The warplanes targeted a number of towns and cities in the countryside of Idlib. Three people, including a girl and a woman, were killed. Twenty-four others, including 16 children and five women, were wounded in the town of Ma'arshurin. Two people were killed in the town's main square. With eight fissile rockets.

A child died in the city of Ariha from injuries sustained of the previous raids on the city.

The total number of victims in the province on Monday reached 21 people.